

HEALTH AND SAFETY POLICY STATEMENT

The Health and Safety at Work Act 1974 imposes statutory requirements on employers to ensure, in so far as is reasonably practicable, the health and safety of their employees and of others who may be affected, whilst at work.

All employees are required to take due account of their own health and safety and that of their fellow workers.

It is our intention to ensure that, at all levels within our organisational structure, responsibilities for health and safety matters are assigned, adopted and maintained.

1. The Company will ensure, so far as is reasonably practicable, that:-
  - a. Information and training will be provided for managers, supervisors, operatives and subcontractors to make them aware of legal and other regulations affecting health and safety at work.
  - b. All plant and machinery is safe and without risk to health.
  - c. Safe places and systems of work are provided and adhered to.
  - d. The general public is protected from injury or inconvenience arising from the Company's operations.
  - e. Accesses and temporary works will be maintained and supervised to eliminate any potential hazard.
  - f. Potential hazards are identified and eliminated where possible at planning stage or protected against where not.
  - g. Suitable medical and welfare facilities are provided in all work places.
  - h. All procedures and practices are regularly maintained to ensure that the Company's policy is effectively implemented at all levels.
  - i. Effective reporting procedures are established and that all accidents and dangerous occurrences are investigated and corrective action taken.
